Dear valued customers,

Southwire is pleased to announce that Philip Thompson has rejoined the Southwire team under his new agency, Thompson Global Wire Solutions. Phil has over 20 years of experience in wire & cable and cable accessories that compliment the Southwire product offering very well and will continue to add additional value to our customers. His knowledge of numerous markets including Industrial, OEM, Commercial and Utility make his agency a great fit for Southwire and its strategy to expand into new regions and service new customers with innovative products and solutions.

Phil will be in contact with you over the next several weeks to discuss your current and future requirements. As a convenience, I have included Phil's contact information below. Please do not hesitate to call or email him with any questions you may have.

We look forward to continuing to service you through Thompson Global Wire Solutions and we thank you for your business and ongoing support.

Regards,
